

Book Fair

At the Fall Book Fair, students get an opportunity to buy Scholastic books and Lafayette School receives book credits to add more books to the school library. The goals of the book fair is to put a book in the hands of every student, bring the community together, and supplement the classrooms and school library through the profit made in book sales.

