

Science Week

During Science Week, Lafayette classrooms display science projects in the hallways. Families and friends are invited to come view the exhibits and ask questions. Science Week is typically in April or May. Here are some photos of some past Science Week exhibits.

